Sub: Information under RTI Act- 2005.

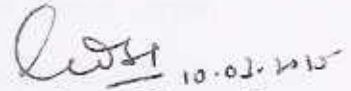

Ref: Your first appeal dt. 01.03.2015, received in this office on 10.03.2015.

After careful examination of your above referred first appeal, it is to inform you that you had preferred your RTI application dt. 14.03.2014 and the desired information was supplied to you by PIO vide his letter of even no. dt. 09.04.2014. Further, you had submitted your representation dt 03.02.15 before PIO and had sought some additional information whereas the same was not mentioned in your original application dt. 14.03.2014, therefore was not entertained by PIO.

In your first appeal nothing is raised against the information supplied by PIO. However, it has been noticed that content of your first appeal did not form part of your original RTI application. Therefore, the disclosure of the information which had not even been sought by you in your original RTI application can not be considered.

As per CIC decision CIC/LS/A/2013/001477-SS Dt. 28-01-14 in the case of Sh. Harish Parsad Divedi v/s Bharat Petroleum Corp., an information seeker cannot be allowed to expand the scope of his RTI enquiry at appeal stage.

Your appeal is disposed off accordingly.
