Text of Appeal	1. I wish to inform you that there are many experience certificate issued from your organization in UPSC specific format, then why the applicant experience certificate not acceptable as per UPSC format version .Is there any rule to give experience certificate only specific employee? , if not then why not for applicant. 2. Applicant want to know how many experience certificate issued from your organization in UPSC format and why are issued in UPSC format because in my case UPSC format not valid, so why UPSC format valid for those certificate. 3.Applicant worked in your organisation about 18 month and given his resignation through proper channel so applicant want to know that is applicant eligible to get a experience certificate regarding his work and nature of duties and pay scale in your organisation or not . 3. If applicant is eligible to get experience certificate and you do not want provide the experience certificate in UPSC format to applicant then please provide experience certificate to him in your organisation format with specific details. 4. In the reply of previous RTI(Registration No. DFCCL/R/E/21/00989, Point No. 2) Your organisation not given any answer regarding previous Issued certificate details. So please also reply in respect of previous RTI point no 2. 6. It is humble request that please give the reply point by point so that all point will cover in your reply .
Reply of Appeal	Dear Appellant, Your appeal has been seen and it is found that you are raising your concern to get experience certificate in a particular format which is nothing but a grievance which cant be dealt with under section 2(f) of RTI Act, 2005. So the action of the CPIO is in order. Hope you appreciate the position.
