Subject: Providing information w.r.t. Original RTI Application received under the RTI Act 2005.

Reference: Your RTI application dated Nil and received in this office on 18.01.2023.

The information contains involuminous papers in thousands of pages. The same could have been rejected u/s 7(9) of the RTI Act, 2005 as the process involved in providing the information by expending huge resources in the form of stationary and man hours which certainly outweighs the public interest involved. However, the applicant may visit the DDU unit/ CPIO's office and specifically ask for the papers so that the same can be provided then and there after depositing the amount required (minus Rs.990/- you have already paid) towards the fees which can only be calculated only after selection of papers required. Below is however given pointwise reply;
