1.	My concern is that there no Computer Academic related question is asked in Online paper held on 11.11.2018 at various locations. All questions were from science stream like Analog Circuit/Digital Circuit etc. which are not related to Computer syllabus. Please let me know why such notification is published in Advertisement in no question is from Computer domain. Please clarify on the scenario as like me many computer aspirants have applied for this post after going through Advertisement & notification. I would also like to suggest that this scenario this exam should be RE conducted for computer domain students or it should be cancelled. Kindly provide clarification as matter is related to JOB.	Candidate sought clarification which cannot be replied.
