

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

DEDICATED FREIGHT CORRIDOR CORPORATION OF INDIA LIMITED

Dedicated Freight Corridor Corporation of India Limited (DFCCIL)

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

1. DFCCIL believes in conduct of its affairs with highest standards of professionalism, honesty and integrity and is committed to ensure ethical behavior by all its employees. The company therefore believes in creating a culture where it should be safe for all employees to raise concerns about any unethical practices or misconduct. This policy provides a framework to enable employees wishing to raise a concern about serious irregularities within the Company without fear of victimisation and covers protected disclosures by employees of DFCCIL including those on deputation.

2. Definitions

- a. “Employee” means every employee of the Company.
- b. “Protected Disclosure” means a concern raised by a written communication made in good faith in accordance with this policy that discloses or demonstrates verifiable unethical or improper activity.
- c. “Subject” means a person against or in relation to whom a Protected Disclosure is made or evidence gathered during the course of an investigation.
- d. “Whistle Blower” is someone who makes a Protected Disclosure under this Policy.
- e. “Whistle Officer” or “Committee” means an officer or Committee of persons who is nominated /appointed to conduct detailed investigation.

3. Coverage of Policy

The Policy covers malpractices or unethical behavior involving:

- a. Demanding and/or accepting gratification other than legal remuneration in respect of an official act or for using his influence with any other official.
- b. Obtaining valuable thing, without consideration or with inadequate consideration from a person with whom he has or likely to have official dealings or his subordinates have official dealings or where he can exert influence.
- c. Obtaining for himself or for any other person any valuable thing or pecuniary advantage by corrupt or illegal means or by abusing his position as a public servant.

- d. Cases of misappropriation, forgery or cheating or other similar criminal offences.
- e. Negligence causing substantial and specific danger to public health and safety.
- f. Manipulation of company data/records
- g. Financial irregularities, including fraud, or suspected fraud or such other criminal offence
- h. Any other unethical behavior or misconduct

While DFCCIL will ensure that genuine Whistle Blowers acting in good faith are accorded protection against victimization or unfair treatment for “Protected Disclosures” under this policy, any abuse of the Policy by way of deliberate and false or bogus allegations made with mala fide intentions shall invite appropriate and severe disciplinary action.

4. Procedure for “Protected Disclosure”

- a. Employees can make Protected Disclosure to CVO, as soon as possible but not later than 30 consecutive days after becoming aware of the same.
- b. Such complaints should be sent by post only. The envelope should be superscribed “Protected Disclosure: To be opened by Addressee only”. The complainant should refrain from giving personal details on the envelope or the main body of the letter which should be given either at the top of the letter or end of the letter so that they can be easily blocked out.
- c. Whistle Blower must put his/her name to allegations. Anonymous complaints shall not be entertained.
- d. Once a disclosure under this Policy is received, the vigilance unit shall make a detailed written record of the Protected Disclosure in a confidential complaint register to be maintained by a designated officer in the vigilance wing including:
 - i) Gist of allegations
 - ii) Particulars of the complainant
 - iii) Whether the same Protected Disclosure was raised previously by anyone, and if so, the outcome thereof;

- iv) Whether any Protected Disclosure was raised previously against the same employee;
- v) Findings of enquiry officer/Committee along with the recommendations of the enquiry officer/Committee on disciplinary matters /other action/(s).

It shall be duty of the designated officer to maintain strict secrecy about the complainant.

- e. The matter shall be thereafter taken up for initial enquiry by the Vigilance Wing after ascertaining the veracity of the complainant through an enquiry officer/Committee without disclosing name of the whistle blower and if such an enquiry indicates that the concern has no basis, or it is not a matter to be investigated/pursued under this Policy, or is already being enquired into, it may be dismissed at this stage and the decision shall be documented.
- f. Where initial enquiries indicate that further investigation is necessary, this will be carried out in a fair manner, as a neutral fact-finding process and without presumption of guilt. A written report on the findings would be made to the Managing Director.
- g. Name of the Whistle Blower shall not be disclosed to the enquiry Officer/Committee.
- h. The enquiry officer/Committee shall finalise and submit the initial report to the CVO within 15 days of being nominated /appointed.
- i. On submission of report, the CVO shall submit the report to the Managing Director who shall either:
 - i) In case the Protected Disclosure is proved, initiate such Disciplinary Action against employees found to be guilty as appropriate
 - ii) Institute preventive measures to avoid reoccurrence of the matter including placing of the matter before the Board of Directors;
 - iii) Initiate appropriate steps for recovering the loss caused to the Company as a result of misconduct
 - iv) Initiate criminal proceedings if so warranted
- v) In case the Protected Disclosure is not proved, close the matter.

5. Protection to Whistle Blowers

DFCCIL is committed to ensuring that no unfair treatment is meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy in good faith including protection against discrimination, harassment, threat or intimidation, termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action and victimization. A person making a “Protected Disclosure” under this Policy can request the CVO for such protection.

The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential.

Any other Employee assisting in the said investigation or furnishing evidence shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

6. Secrecy/Confidentiality

The Whistle Blower, the Subject, the enquiry officer and everyone involved in the process shall maintain complete confidentiality/ secrecy of the matter and if anyone is found not complying with the above, he/ she shall be held liable for such disciplinary action as is considered fit.

7. Reporting

A quarterly report with number of complaints received under the Policy and their outcome shall be placed before the Board of Directors.

8. Amendment

DFCCIL reserves the right to amend or modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason, whatsoever.

9. Action against person making a false complaint:
